Dear Sri. K.R.Paramahamsa garu

I have received your valuable books 14 in all through my son
~~Sri~~ Basavaraju.

At the outset I must express my admiration for the wisdom and energy that god had given you to perform a rare yagna of pouring out so much of valuable, informative and educative material about our Vedic and dharmic subject. I wonder if any one individual in the modern times has ever digested and succeeded in exposition of this not so an easy subject.

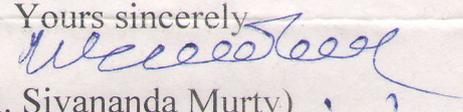

I heartily congratulate you on your monumental work. Whenever I snatch a few minutes free from a busy routine, I am going through a few sentences at random. I shall deem it a kind act of yours that you gave those volumes to me. I will continue to pay my attention, read more of it.

Perhaps you have decided not to publish this encyclopaedic work for your own reasons.

Once again thanking you sir, I remain

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

(K. Sivananda Murty)
